A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

First of all, come to the Stewardship Weekend concert at 5:00 PM on Saturday, November 4!

Second, we are returning to an old tradition at First Pres. this November, and I think it is one that I could get used to in a hurry. Remembering that we often had guest preachers for our official commitment Sundays, the Stewardship Committee suggested that we put together a weekend with a guest preacher and speaker. It just so happened that a professor in my doctoral program, David McKechnie, and his wife, Linda, had come to FPC for the Patton Lecture Series in 1999. When we contacted them about coming back again, they jumped at the opportunity.

Linda will present a concert on Saturday and play during worship on Sunday, and Dave will add some commentary on Saturday night and preach on Sunday. In the meantime, we will begin making our financial pledges to God's work through First Pres. for 2018. Your generosity over the past two years has been remarkable, and we have been able to stabilize our budget and invest our surplus back into our missions giving. As we look forward, we should also be encouraged by the growth of our Wednesday Night Supper programs and our children's and youth ministries for encouragement and validation of our giving. In the coming months, our Church Vision Committee will also be bringing forth some ideas and proposals that will lead us into the coming years. So, we have a lot to look forward to as a congregation as we consider our pledges for 2018.

Beyond November 5, however, I am not sure how to talk about the month to come. Over the past year or so, you might have noticed that I have had a number of raspy-voiced sermons and moments of congestion during a worship service. I know that the choir has noticed, because I have severely depleted the stores of tissues that they keep at the end of each row. You might have even noticed committee meetings during which I have been dealing with sinus headaches.

Well, I thought that all of these afflictions were the result of having a baby who was in child care and was participating in reverse show-and tell (i.e.- bringing home all the diseases that her classmates give her at school). That might be a factor, but apparently I have a significant spur in my septum that is blocking a sinus and needs to be addressed. Thus, I am having surgery on November 7. Joyce Perez will preach on November 12 and I will return on November 19.

While I would not mind if the guest preacher for Stewardship Weekend became a regular occurrence, I hope that my surgically-induced absences are few and far between. By the end of the month, we will be looking toward Thanksgiving and Christ the King Sunday (the Sunday before Advent), and will be guided by some Psalms and their reflections on God's promises and anticipation of His work in Jesus. I will also lead two lessons on the Spiritual discipline of simplicity for our Wednesday Night Supper programs, and we are all invited to the community Thanksgiving service at First Baptist Church, at 7:00 PM on Monday, November 20.

So, while I will have a few days of laying low early in the month, I look forward to all the rest of what God has in store for us as we approach the end of the year. Thanks for your prayers, and I look forward to clearer breathing and plenty of tissues left for the choir!

In Christ,
Allen

REMINDER:

The Men's Breakfast will be Nov. 18th at 8:00 a.m.

You are invited to join us for our study; "Unfolded: The Story Of God." Most of us know specific Bible stories, but do you know the overarching story of the Bible? While the Bible is a collection of 66 books, the reigning theme that still holds eternal implications for our lives today is God's powerful story of redemption. We will explore this story of a God who loves us, longs to be known by us, and ultimately invites us into His story.

STEWARDSHIP IN ACTION

Last month in this column we highlighted a special form of stewardship practiced by Brenna Takata. This month we highlight Ruth Meadors. I'm sure many of you remember some of the delicious meals that Ruth prepared for past Wednesday night dinners but you may not be aware of Ruth's contributions to the church youth programs. Ruth has hosted several youth dinners at her home and has opened her places at Wintergreen and at Lakewood Campground in Myrtle Beach for various youth activities. She has gone on mission trips and she went to Jamaica with the youth in 2015. She has been and always will be a person ready to help when help is needed. Thanks Ruth for the many gifts you provide to the people around you!

Stewardship News

Please plan to attend our Stewardship Weekend concert to be held on November 4th at 5:00 in the our sanctuary . Linda McKechnie will be sharing her many talents as a pianist, arranger, and recording artist. Linda succeeds with dramatic flair in rejuvenating the traditional Christian hymns, praise and worship choruses, and Christmas carols by blending these with the powerful themes of the master composers such as Bach, Beethoven, and Mozart. It should be a great concert!

On Sunday David McKechnie (Linda's husband) will deliver a Stewardship themed message. Linda will also be performing during the worship service. During this service you will be able to return your pledge cards that you received in the mail. There will be a "Consecration of Pledge" inserted into worship service to allow the congregation to come forward and deliver their pledges to the plate. Anyone choosing not to come forward could place their pledge cards in the collection plate during the Dedication of Offering. We look forward to seeing you!

November is a month to be thankful, and boy do we have a lot to be thankful for! Our sweet children are learning and growing everyday! This month we'll look forward to celebrating daddies with "Donuts with Dad" on November 14th. Then on the 21st our children will celebrate Thanksgiving with each other and we'll share a meal together. Join me in giving thanks to God for all of our many blessings! Enjoy some of our pictures from October!
